Second Sunday in Advent Year B, 2020

Isaiah Psalm 85:1-2, 8-13; 40:1-11; Psalm 85:1-2, 8-13; 2 Peter 3:8-15a; Mark 1:1-8

Advent has been acknowledged by the church since about the 4th century AD. Its focus was and is two-fold: To celebrate the first and anticipate the second coming of Jesus into the world. 2 Peter focuses on the second coming of Jesus.

“But do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day...But the day of the Lord will come like a thief...” 2 Peter 3:8 and 10a

Unlike our understanding of time, “the day of the Lord” is anytime and all of the time.

Unlike our understanding of presence, God is ever present or there is no place where God is not.

Advent is a wonderful opportunity to hone our skills of looking for God until the unusual becomes the usual. It is to live in expectation finding God in the mundane and the magnificent.

Where is God each time you pick up a fork; or taste the food; or sip a cup of tea or coffee? Where is God when you laugh or cry? Where is God when you are angry or calm?

Give us ears to hear your new voice, O God.
And eyes to watch and find you in each and every way,
That we may know your presence all around us and in us,
During this holy season of anticipation and transformation
Through Christ we pray. Amen

Rev. Julia
