Mount Carmel Baptist Church

5732 Race Street
Philadelphia, PA 19139
Reverend Dr. Donald D. Moore, Pastor
Reverend Dr. Albert F. Campbell, Pastor Emeritus

Fourth Sunday in Advent Year B, 2020

2 Samuel 7:1-11, 16; Luke 1:46b-55 or Psalm 89:1-4, 19-26; Romans 16:25-27; Romans 16:25-27

"Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you." Luke 1:20

Please take a minute to meditate on these few words. Repeat them a few times, slowly. Pay attention to how your mind/soul responds to this salutation.

This salutation was given to a poor, socially disenfranchised woman who lived in a community, which was equally poor and ignored.

Sometimes forces and circumstances come together to make us feel diminished, when we fall short of the mark. Other times someone expresses a low opinion of us. Cultural norms have been created and institutionalized to make people of color as valueless. Sadly, we can find religious teachings of unworthiness. But clearly God views us valuable and worth dying for. Such awareness makes us feel whole again.

In just a few days we will celebrate the birth of God's greatest expression of love, in the person of Jesus Christ. He was the child of a poor, socially disenfranchised woman who was married to a carpenter, living in a community, which was equally poor and ignored.

Joy to the world, the LORD has come.
Let earth receive her King who never tires of extending the salutation,
"Greetings, favored one!
The Lord is with you."

Rev. Julia
