Fourth Sunday in Lent: March 14, 2021

Numbers 21:4-9; Psalm 107:1-3, 17-22; Ephesians 2:1-10; John 3:14-21

"For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life." Ephesians 2:10

Ephesians 2:1-10 teaches us how the grace of salvation transports us from life before and life after Christ. In Christ, we are "made alive." In this new life, we are able to tap into and become what God has made us to be. We can rejoice because of the talents we know exist in us. We can assess how well our talents function or not. If they are doing well, in Christ, there is room for nurturing and growth. When we do not use our gifts to their fullest potential, rather than giving up, we can acknowledge this and lament our shortcomings, in Christ. We can rest in the promise that Christ will lift us up and point us in the right direction.

There is something else to consider, there is more to be discovered about who we are in Christ. If you feel unfilled and life seems hum drum, it is a signal that you are living beneath yourself. Lent is a great season to decide in the power of the Holy Spirit, to change.

Lord, lift us up and let us stand,
By faith, on Heaven's tableland.
A higher plane than we have found,
Lord, plant our feet on higher ground.

Blessed Lent,
Rev. Julia
