Reverend Dr. Albert F. Campbell, Pastor Emeritus

Fifth Sunday in Lent: March 21, 2021: Jeremiah 31:31-34; Psalm 51:1-12 or Psalm 119:9-16; Hebrews 5:5-10; John 12:20-33

"The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah...I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts;" Jeremiah 31:31 and 33.

It took Jesus' death, burial and resurrection to open the way for this covenant to become real and accessible for us. We also are required to follow the same path to make this law applicable in our lives. "Listen carefully (says Jesus): Unless a grain of wheat is buried in the ground, dead to the world, it is never any more than a grain of wheat. But if it is buried, it sprouts and reproduces itself many times over. In the same way, anyone who holds on to life just as it is destroys that life. But if you let it go, reckless in your love, you'll have it forever, real and eternal." John 12:24-26

Jesus then says, "Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say--' Father, save me from this hour'? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour." John 12:27

Jesus is giving us permission not to want to go through the pain of transformation. However, this new covenant law written in our hearts will produce the power to "... Love the Lord our God with all our heart, and with all our soul, and with all our mind...And our neighbor as self." Matthew 22:37 and 39.

"If any of you wants to serve me, then follow me."
John 12:25
