Palm Sunday March 28, 2021
*Psalm 118:1-2, 19-29; Mark
11:1-11; John 12:12-16.*

I have had the privilege to spend the last days of life with many individuals. Often, a just few days before their death there was a blossoming of vitality in the person. This 'flowering' generated false hope in the minds of some family members that recovery was possible. However, in just a few days their loved one would decline and die.

Palm Sunday and Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem reminds of the last 'flowering' for Jesus. In six days, he will die. For those believers who witnessed his death on Friday, I suspect it was a crushing blow to their hopes that Jesus would deliver and free them from the oppression of Rome.

Realistic hope knows this "flowering" is a natural process towards a greater redemption. Honest hope remembers that Jesus told his followers that he must go to Jerusalem and die. Confident faith believes that Jesus also said he would rise on the third day. Faith-filled praise sings,

"Ride on King Jesus in splendor through the streets of Jerusalem.
Ride on, defeat sin, death, hell and the grave.
Ride on, open the way for us to know the length and breadth and depth of the love of God for all eternity."

Hosanna. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD. Rev. Julia
