Year A, Third Sunday in Lent, March 12, 2023: Exodus 17:1-7; Psalm 95; Romans 5:1-2; John 4:5-42

“Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; And that’s not all: We throw open our doors to God and discover at the same moment that he has already thrown open his door to us. We find ourselves standing where we always hoped we might stand—out in the wide-open spaces of God’s grace and glory, standing tall and shouting our praise.” Romans 5:1-2

I hope you will take the time to re-read these two verses. Read them until your soul soaks in the simple truth that faith in Christ’s redemptive work, not ours, opens the way for right relationship with God, ourselves, and our neighbor: Associations and interactions rooted in love and grounded in peace.

Life really is simple; we create the circumstances that complicate—Anonymous.
